

Update

MarkB, Saturday 01 February 2020 - 10:25:02

There is a good KRFL Forum discussion going on in the General league Discussions. Check it out and weigh in if you have not.

As we head towards the 20th year of KRFL, I have uploaded the following files:

- + In the Misc. Links section, which is found in the upper left hand corner of the home page, the KRFL Wall of Fame and All-Time Franchise Records have been updated
- + In the League Files section of the home page, I have posted a pre-2020 Roster Cut Down Salary Worksheet and updated Draft Boards. The roster cut down period is a few months away and trading is closed, but if you are interested they are now there.

Again, congratulations to Jim Rice on his second KRFL Championship, welcome back to founder Jim Doyle and welcome back from your hibernation Chris Culler!
